

CollisionWeek

Mon, 07 Jul 2008

Collision Repair Executive Webcast to Host George Avery

Collision Repair Executive Webcast (CREW) has announced that the guest speaker for the July 17 CREW presentation will be George Avery, Estimatix Consultant, Property and Casualty Claims for State Farm Insurance Companies.

George will provide an update on State Farm's Select Service OE parts electronic ordering program which is part of a collision repairer's Select Service agreement. State Farm recently announced a further roll out of the two original test markets, San Diego, California and Indianapolis, Indiana, to include the entire states of California and Indiana.

George Avery began his career in Auto Body Repair. During his career at State Farm Insurance, George has held various auto estimating, claims, and field management positions. In 1991, George moved to State Farm's Home Office in Bloomington Illinois. His corporate duties included auto claims instructor, Learning & Development consultant. In addition to his role with State Farm, George is a participant in the Collision Industry Conference and is currently the Vice President of the National Auto Body Council.

CREW is hosted by Fix Auto. Matthew Ohrnstein, Symphony Advisors and Vincent Romans, The Romans Group, produce and present the bi-monthly, one-hour Webcast meeting.

There is no cost to participate in CREW but prior registration is required. The CREW Webcast will begin at 11 a.m. PST on Thursday July 17. If you are interested in joining the Webcast register online at <http://www.crewwebcast.com>