Collision Repair Executive Webcast (CREW) announced that the guest speaker for the Thursday, July 19th session will be Terry Fortner, Associate Vice President (AVP), Material Damage Technical Claims and Auto Subrogation for Nationwide Insurance.

Fortner will speak on trends within the P & C Insurance Industry, results and insights gained from Nationwide's recent advisory council meeting with collision repair organizations, and Nationwide's Blue Ribbon Program current status and future direction.

Terry Fortner commenced his career with Nationwide Insurance in 1977 and is responsible for corporate auto physical damage and auto recovery claims. He leads an organization of more than 500 people are located throughout the United States.

Fortner was recently elected to the board of I-CAR Education Foundation. His other industry involvements include participation on the CCC Advisory Council, COPART Advisory Council and Keystone Automotive Advisory Council. He recently completed a six year term on the I-CAR International Board of Directors and previously served on the Collision Industry Electronic Commerce Association (CIECA) Board. He is also frequent speaker at industry events and meetings.

CREW is hosted by Fix Auto. Matthew Ohrnstein, Symphony Advisors, and Vincent Romans, The Romans Group, produce and present the bi-monthly, one-hour Webcast meeting.

There is no cost to participate in CREW but prior registration is required. The CREW Webcast is held every third Thursday bi-monthly at 11 a.m. PST. If you are interested in joining a future CREW session please call the CREW help desk at 1-888-505-CREW or via e-mail at crew@fixauto.com or on the web at <http://www.crewwebcast.com>
