

CollisionWeek

Your Global Source for Collision Repair Industry News, Statistics, and Trend Analysis

Monday, Sept 26, 2005

Romans Group and Symphony Advisors Enter Into Strategic Alliance

Symphony Advisors, LLC, and The Romans Group LLC, have announced a strategic partnership where the two groups will collaborate on key client projects.

“Matthew Ohrnstein brings a broad base of complimentary business competencies to The Romans Group through his newly-formed organization, Symphony Advisors,” said Vincent Romans of The Romans Group. “Matt’s experience and insight within the auto physical damage and property and casualty insurance industry will allow us to leverage our combined competencies to provide clients with customized solutions that better ensure their winning position within their business marketplace and segments served.”

“I am excited to work with Vince Romans and The Romans Group team,” said Matthew Ohrnstein, Managing Director of Symphony Advisors. Over the past ten years, The Romans Group has demonstrated its value and commitment to clients and has been a major force behind many successful organizations throughout the automotive and property physical damage industries.”

The Romans Group and Symphony Advisors will provide business, market, financial, and strategic development advisory services to the automotive services, collision repair, property repair and restoration, and property and casualty insurance industries.